

Christmas '94

By Carl "Jr. Fox" Jones

Christmas ninety-four is here
and with it comes my rhyme.
I had a hard time thinking of
just what to say this time.

I've talked about the Homelessness,
I've talked about our King.
I think it's time to talk about the joy the day does bring.

Christmas day brings joy to us
in many different ways.
It is the day of giving,
recognized of all the days.

To some it means they will finally get what they've waited for all year.
A Toy, a Coat, another Ring,
or a passel of new Ski gear.

Christmas is the time of year
when people can forget,
their hates and fears and most of all
their weight, and "Oh what budget?".

Some people like to cook their food,
and some people like to eat.
Christmas presents both of these
with a melding of both treats.

So let the partying begin my friends
and no one takes offense.
Yes get into the joyous mood,
and let the Christmas season commence!!!
