

AN ANNIVERSARY POEM FROM "THE JONES"

*We're writing this poem for Kat and Jim
On this momentous day,
To let them know we share their love
Though in a different way.
Their friendship and their kindness
Is known by one and all.
We personally know they're there for us
If we may trip and fall.
Jim and Kat you're like the rock
That people call Gibraltar.
Your love's so strong it steadies you when one of you may falter.
Your love is like a net,
Maybe a spider web in kind.
It snares you in its tender strands,
Then penetrates the mind.
When one's been touched by this great love,
A soldier for the cause they'll be.
For they will want to share it too,
With whomever they may see.
If circumstances change,
And you find you need a hand,
just call on us and we'll be there
with all our merry band.
So Kat and Jim we hope this day
Brings happiness, joy and cheers.
Because a love like yours is sure to last for many more years.*
